We are thinking hard about the next HomeLife initiative which will be launched early in October.

Kelly Lamb, who leads this venture, faces meeting the high expectations previous HomeLife seasons have created.

For St. Michael's, family life is an essential focus of outreach. HomeLife has given great opportunities for growth and development.

St. Michael's summer bible school entertained and educated many of our youngest parishioner's for a week.

It is especially noteworthy that there were an equal number of older students caring for them. Each group benefits.

You will notice that we are paying close attention to our physical plant. The building committee is investing many hours looking into the condition of our buildings and grounds.

“Building Strong Families”

HomeLife

The mission of St. Michael’s HomeLife ministry is to encourage and empower parishioners to enrich the quality of family relationships and strengthen family values through the use of excellent resources that enable family life to flourish.

The Summer @ Home campaign is at its mid-point.

Integrate these effective resources into your family routine to make the final 31 days of summer the best yet.

“I’M BORED” is a phrase parents dread hearing during the LONG summer vacation. Be proactive with Faith@Home intentionality. Bring home resource materials located in the HomeLife Center and the pews. Here is what is on offer:

Summer@Home Guide details creative low cost/no cost ideas to overcome summer boredom.

Summer@Home CD includes 3 thoughtful tracks for parents and grandparents: Intentional Summer, The Mini Van Years, and Video Game Troubles. All three are worthwhile additions to your daily drive or walk.

HomeLife Recipe Cards feature 10 Virtues we want our children to develop. Each card includes a memory quote, suggested children’s books, family movies and activities to help kids understand and model each virtue.

HomeLife Personal Plan is a tool for parents and grandparents to become more intentional at home. Inside the Personal Plan is a list of summer events offered by St. Michael’s to support their efforts.

All resources can be found in the HomeLife Center located near the handicap entrance.

You Can Save Lives!

Blood Drive@ St. Michael’s on Thursday, August 25th from 5-8pm

The appointment takes only 45 minutes and has the potential to help 3 people .

Contact Kelly Lamb at 908-489-8258 to schedule your donation appointment.

Youth Altar Servers Wanted

Want to serve God in a special way?

Like being close to the action?

PADUAN MINISTRY

Who Will Know?

Who will know about my problem, if I talk to a Stephen or Paduan Minister? Many people ask that question. Confidentiality is the cornerstone of our Ministries. No one will find out what you discuss with your Stephen or Paduan Minister. If you have a burden or are lonely, we can help.

Please remember that our Stephen and Paduan Ministers are available to visit the sick; the elderly; and bring Communion. Our Ministers will come to the home as well as make visits to the hospital and rehab center. Please contact us if you need us – 732-483-0360, Ext. 20.

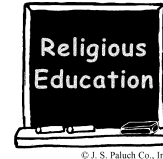

Last week, your Stephen and Paduan Ministers made 19 communion calls, 4 visits and 4 telephone calls.

We pray that we have helped to bring God’s love and peace to His people in need.

There will be a presentation of the New Roman Missal by Msgr. Sam A. Sirianni at Holy Trinity Church on Thursday, October 20th, 2011 from 7:00-9:00 PM.

Divorced, Widowed, and Separated

In the 1800's people flocked to Long Branch during the summer to take advantage of the curative powers of the salt air and water. President Garfield was brought here to heal from his bullet wound. It didn't work for the President.

Emotional healing is difficult. The causes of are pain are not so easily identified as a bullet wound. We need deal with deeper wounds: wounds that separate us, wounds that cause an emptiness, wounds that cause loneliness and anxiety. These take more than salt air and salt water to cure them.

God offers us healing energy, but we have to accept it. We have to let it come into us and to heal us. We have just to ask for it and accept it. Healing can change our energy. It can change the dynamics.

There can be blocks to our ability to heal. Making amends for our actions can begin a great chain of events in us. It enables us to release negative feelings and energy and open us for positive feelings and energy. It opens us to taking God into us. And so the healing will begin.

The Divorced, Widowed, and Separated group meets on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month at St. Michael's Living Room at 7pm. For more information please call 732-483-0360 ext 16.
