Kelly Lamb and her associates presented the new HomeLife campaign well last weekend.

You may find in your pews some of the resources available to parents and grandparents to make summer more interesting while strengthening the quality of a family's life.

They are free and you should think about taking them if you think they can benefit you or someone you know.

They present many ideas, and it is unlikely that any family with school age children will not find at least a few very good ideas .

St. Michael's wants to be the friend and support of family life.

Take the time to check out the HomeLife page of this bulletin to learn more of the opportunities you have.

The engineers who have been assessing the construction of the Church building report that the timbers that support the roof (purlins) are rotted at the east wall (Church front), while those of the west wall remain strong.

When we have the complete report, the Building Committee will address and then discuss it with the Finance Committee.

Anniversary booklets become a chief way that parishes learn their history.

When we make ourselves part of the Anniversary booklet, we place our name in the written history of St. Michael's

HomeLife

“Building Strong Families”

The mission of St. Michael’s HomeLife ministry is to encourage and empower parishioners to enrich the quality of family relationships and strengthen family values through the use of excellent resources that enable family life to flourish.

The Summer @ Home campaign began this June 5th !!

“I’M BORED” is a phrase parents dread hearing during the LONG summer vacation. Be proactive with Faith@Home intentionality. Bring home resource materials located in the HomeLife Center and the pews. Here is what is on offer:

Summer@Home Guide details creative low cost/no cost ideas to overcome summer boredom.

Summer@Home CD includes 3 thoughtful tracks for parents and grandparents: Intentional Summer, The Mini Van Years, and Video Game Troubles. All three are worthwhile additions to your daily drive or walk.

HomeLife Recipe Cards feature 10 Virtues we want our children to develop. Each card includes a memory quote, suggested children’s books, family movies and activities to help kids understand and model each virtue.

HomeLife Personal Plan is a tool for parents and grandparents to become more intentional at home. Inside the Personal Plan is a list of summer events offered by St. Michael’s to support their efforts.

All resources can be found in the HomeLife Center located near the handicap entrance.

9 days until summer vacation; what’s your plan?

Mom’s Night Out, Thursday, June 16th (NEW DATE) at 7pm in the Living Room. Socialize, strategize and “intentionalize” summer fun utilizing creative resources from the Summer@Home Guide. Invite a friend. Light refreshments will be served. Pre-registration by 6/14 requested. Call Kelly Lamb at 908-489-8258.

Get a SPIRITUAL BOOST in time for summer vacation...

Sacred Heart Mission, June 27-30th at 7-830pm and morning mass conducted by Father Gaffney, CSsR and Redemptorist lay missionary, Mrs. Gloria Anson.

Everyone is invited, especially families, to renew faith and love in the home, to introduce family prayer, to seek forgiveness and reconciliation, to get hope in difficult times and to deepen our Catholic faith. Evening mission topics include: Jesus is Alive, Jesus Forgives, Living under His Loving Influence and a Demonstration of the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart. Bring the children. Come as many nights as you are able. Light refreshments will be served. We look forward to seeing you...

The hanging Sanctuary Light will be lit each week as a Memorial, and the name of your loved one will be printed in the weekly bulletin.

If you are interested in this special remembrance to honor a loved one, living or deceased, please call Jen at 222 -8080, Ext. 11.

The Sanctuary Candle on St. Joseph's side will be lit this week for the birthday remembrance of Joseph S. Sacco, requested by your loving family

STEPHEN MINISTRY

PADUAN MINISTRY

"I will be with you"

What a comfort it can be to have a concerned person willing to help you through troubled times. They can help an elderly person feel better about themselves. They can hold someone's hand through illness and difficulties. They can just 'be there' when you need a friend. A Stephen or Paduan Minister can be that person. Call us - 732-483-0360, extension 20.

Last week, your Stephen and Paduan Ministers made 15 communion calls, 10 visits and 8 telephone calls.

We pray that we have helped to bring God's love and peace to His people in need.

Come Join Us for a Night of Recollection"
(Evening Prayers and Benediction)

Do you feel the need for a more complete prayer life? During these difficult times, as we resolve to change many parts of our lives, prayer can be the spiritual answer for the needs of our country and for your personal circumstances.

St. Michael's is continuing our

"Nights of Recollection",

where you can deepen your prayer life and reflect on your personal needs.

Our next "Night of Recollection" will be held on Thursday, June 16th,

in St. Michael's Church, beginning at 7:00 PM.

The program lasts for approximately one hour and includes

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Evening Prayers from the Office

Homily

Time for Private Prayer

Recitation of the Rosary

Benediction

All parishioners and guests are welcome to attend.

Sponsored by the Society of St. Michael the Archangel.

Parish School of Religion

ATTENTION CCD PARENTS:

Divorced, Separated, and Widowed Ministry Behavior patterns in our lives can hold us captive. Old beliefs can be messages that never allow us to feel good about ourselves. Panic and drive for perfection are enemies. A focus on living each day the best we can and being comfortable with our best will bring some peace of mind. Sometimes we need to let go of the messages that drive us into the crazies. Our ministry meets in the Living Room at 6 West End Court, Long Branch from 7 to 8:30 pm on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month.
